The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

ARTICLE 3
UNION SECURITY

3.4 ~~New Employees. The Employer agrees to advise all non-union help, both Part-time and Full-time to report to the Union office or store steward within the thirty-one (31) day grace period in order to establish a record of starting and for membership data such as name, address, date of birth, etc. The Employer agrees under the contract requirements of paragraph 3.1 and 3.2 above, to have a new employee complete a union membership card and dues authorization. The Employer agrees, under the contract requirements of paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 above, to have a new Employee complete a union membership card and dues authorization at the time of hiring. The Union agrees that should the Employer take an initial deduction prior to the completion of the Employee's probationary period, such amount shall be promptly refunded by the Union to the Employee.~~ A Union Representative will be allowed to have a fifteen (15) minute session with newly hired employees immediately following any company new hire orientation; when this is not possible, the Union Representative will be allowed to schedule a visit when the new hire (or rehire) is on the schedule if they have not yet met with a Union Representative.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

Article 4

Hours of Labor

4.1 Basic Workweek. Forty (40) hours to be worked in any five (5) days Monday through Saturday shall constitute a regular work week. For payroll purposes, the workweek commences at 12:01 a.m. on Sunday. The daily hours to be worked shall be set upon a regular schedule. Time and one-half (1½) shall be paid for all time worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day, scheduled or approved, after forty (40) hours per week, or on the sixth day. ARTICLE 12

EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION

12.2 New Employee Probationary Period. Any new Full-time Employee shall be subject to discharge at the option of the Employer during the first thirty (30) days of employment after the last date of hire. Any new Part-time Employee shall be subject to discharge at the option of the Employer during the first sixty (60) days of employment after the last date of hire. The probationary period may be extended an additional thirty (30) days upon written notice from the Employer to the Employee affected and the Union.12.3.

12.3 Employee Discipline. Employees shall be warned, suspended or discharged only for just cause. When an Employee is to be warned, suspended or discharged the Employee shall be talked to in private, with the steward of his/her choice if available; if that person is not available, then another steward may attend.

12.4 Progressive Discipline. It is mutually understood and agreed that the concept of progressive discipline shall be recognized in implementing and administering disciplinary procedures. It is further understood that potentially serious violations of policy or work rules may dictate discipline outside of the normal progression. The normal progression shall be; first written warning, second written warning, suspension and then discharge.

12.35 Employee Discharge. The Employer shall not warn, discharge nor suspend any Employee without just cause. In respect to discharge, the Employer shall give at least one written warning notice of the complaint against such Employee to the Employee ~~in writing~~ and a copy of the same to the Union. No warning notice need be given to an Employee where he/she is discharge if the cause for such discharge is dishonesty, possession on store premises (including Employer's parking lot) of illegal drugs on the job, fighting or threatening violence, absence from work without a reasonable excuse, willful insubordination, violation of an established written work rule or willful destruction of property. In addition, no warning notice need be given in the instance of a suspension which is defined as a removal from the payroll for a period of time with the right to be reinstated without loss of seniority at the end of said period of time. Employer may delay up to 14 days to serve a disciplinary suspension when in the opinion of the Employer the needs of the business would suffer if a disciplinary suspension was served immediately following the determination of a disciplinary suspension.

12.46 Discharge Notice, Investigation and Appeal. All discharges must be by proper written notice to the Employee and the Union affected. Any Employee may request an investigation as to his/her discharge or suspension. Should such investigation prove that an injustice has been done an Employee, he/she shall be reinstated and compensated at his/her usual rate of pay while he/she has been out of work. Appeal from discharge or suspension must be taken within ten (10) days by written notice. It shall comply with the grievance ~~machinery~~ procedure set herein.

12.57 Warning Notices. A warning notice as herein provided shall not remain in effect for a period of more than twelve (12) months from the date of the warning notice. However, all warning notices and other notification of discipline will remain in an Employee's file even if no longer in effect.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

14.1 Grievance Processing Steps. Should a difference arise between the Employer and the Union or Employees as to the meaning and application of the provisions of this Agreement or as to the compliance of either party with any of its obligations under this Agreement, an earnest effort shall be made to settle such differences immediately under the following procedure by negotiations:

A. Between the Employee affected and his/her department head.

B. By a representative of the Union and an executive of the Employer, at which time either party may call in an outside representative.

C. Any dispute, difference, or grievance relative to the interpretation of or adherence to the terms of the Agreement which has not been resolved in Steps A or B above, will be reduced to writing within ten (10) days of the meeting in Steps A or B above. Once reduced to writing, representatives of the Union and the Company will meet in an effort to resolve the grievance. The Company shall issue a written response within 7 calendar days of the meeting. If the Company fails to issue a written response the Union shall be awarded the resolve requested in the written grievance.

D. Should the dispute, difference or grievance not be resolved in Step C, by mutual agreement either party may submit the matter to non-binding mediation. The services of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services (FMCS), Bureau of Mediation (BMS), or Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission (WERC) will be used for this mediation. Mediation must be requested within ten (10) days of the Step C meeting.

E. If the dispute, difference or grievance is not settled in Step D (or Step C, if mediation is not mutually agreed upon), the matter may be referred to binding arbitration. Such request for arbitration must be within ten (10) days of the Step D meeting (or Step C meeting if Step D is not used).

F. If a dispute, difference or grievance is arbitrated, the moving party will submit a request for an arbitration panel to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services. The list will consist of seven (7) names.

Either party may request a second panel of arbitrators but the party requesting the second panel shall pay for the list. The Arbitrators will be selected by the parties alternately striking names until one (1) Arbitrator is left. The order of the strikes will be determined by lot.

G. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all parties. However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms or conditions of the agreement. Either party may request a review of an Arbitrator's decision, if either party believes the Arbitrator exceeded their authority, made a mistake of law, or otherwise disregarded the clear and unambiguous language of the Agreement.

H. The expense of the Arbitrator, transcription, and hearing room shall be the responsibility of the party not prevailing in arbitration.

I. At any step in this grievance procedure the Executive Board of the Local Union shall have the final authority, in respect to any aggrieved Employee covered by this Agreement, to decline to process a grievance, complaint, difficulty or dispute further if in the judgment of the executive Board such grievance or dispute lacks merit or lacks justification under the terms of this Agreement, or has been adjusted or justified under the terms of this Agreement, to the satisfaction of the Union Executive Board.

J. Except in cases of termination, all disputes, differences, or grievances must be brought to Steps A and/or B in 14.1 within thirty (30) days of the alleged violation. In cases of wage disputes in which sixty (60) days will be the time limit. These time limits, and the time limits in 14.1, C, D, &E are binding and all disputes, differences, or grievances will be barred if not adhered to. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. The Employer will forward all Corrective Action Notices issued to the Employees to the Union within three (3) days of receipt by the Employee in order for the Union to comply with the time frames of Article 14. If not received in a timely manner, such failure shall only extend the time for filing the grievance, but shall not void the action taken. The Union shall stamp all such notices with the date received.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

ARTICLE 15

Renumber the remaining sections.

Pension.

15.~~31~~29 Base Contribution Rate. The Employer agrees to contribute ~~Sixty~~ Ninety Cents ($.6090) per hour to said Pension Fund for each hour worked by each Full-time and Part-time Employee (exclusive of Part-time Non-Food Handling Employees) after the Employee has completed their probationary period.

15.~~32~~30 Enhanced Contribution Rate. The Employer agrees to contribute one dollar and ~~fifty~~ twenty-five cents ($1.~~25~~55) per hour for each hour worked by each Full-time and Part-time Employee (including ThirtyPlus Employees) (exclusive of Part-time Non-Food Handling Employees) with more than five (5) years of service to the Employer.

15.~~33~~31 Additional Contribution. In addition, the Employer shall continue to pay the current non-benefited pension contribution in the amount 16¢/hour for all pension hours until such time as the Pension Fund Trustees determine that the additional non-benefited contribution is no longer required.

15.~~34~~2 Covered Hours of Employment. For the purpose of this section, "hours worked" shall mean all hours worked not in excess of forty (40) hours in any one week by any Full-time or Part-time Employee, and shall include, pursuant to said 40 hour limitation, any holiday, personal day, or vacation pay (for time not actually worked) for which the Employee is entitled to straight time pay under the terms of this Agreement. The Pension Trust and benefits to be provided from the Pension Trust shall conform to all requirements of the Treasury Department, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and to any other applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

15.34 401K Match. The Employer agrees to match up to 5% of the contribution for an Employee who elects to contribute to the 401K plan offered by the Employer.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

ARTICLE 18

FUNERAL LEAVE

18.2 Definition. Under the term “immediate family” shall mean spouse, parents and step-parents, children and step-children, brothers and step-brothers, sisters and step-sisters, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparents, and grandchildren, legal guardian or any relative residing with the Employee or with whom the Employee is residing.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.

ARTICLE 19

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

19.4.A Union Office. Election or appointment to office in/or as a delegate representing the Union requiring either temporary or full time leave shall be granted by the Employer. Such leave shall not exceed the term of office to which he is elected.

19.4.B S.P.U.R. (Special Project Union Representative). A leave of absence will be provided for a period of time, not to exceed one (1) year, for an employee requested by the Union to assist the UFCW International or Local 1189 for temporary work as a Union Representative in the SPUR program. The Union will provide a 30 day minimum notice to the Employer. It is understood that the Union would make any contributions necessary to continue the Employee's participation in H&W and Pension Programs as provided by the agreement during the leave of absence. The Employer would provide the leave without loss of seniority. For Employers with two (2) or fewer stores, the SPUR leave will be granted only upon mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

19.10 Earned Sick and Safe Time. All employees shall accrue one hour of earned sick and safe time for every 50 hours worked. Earned sick and safe time shall accrue only in hour unit increments. An Employee will be allowed to carry over up to 40 hours of earned but unused sick and safe time into the following year.

The Earned Sick and Safe Time benefit accruals shall be in addition to and separate from other paid time off benefits provided in this Agreement and may be used in conjunction with other qualifying leaves.

An employer shall allow an employee to use earned sick and safe time for an absence resulting from an employee's own mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; to accommodate the employee's need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or an employee's need for preventive medical care; to allow the employee to provide care for a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; care for a family member who needs medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or care for a family member who needs preventive medical care; and for an absence due to domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking of the employee or employee's family member.

The Union reserves the right to add to, modify, and/or delete from these proposals until such time that a complete successor agreement has been reached.
